

Training materials for Rural GCE

Presenting: The Rural GCE pilot testing

The training materials for the Rural GCE training course are finalized and uploaded on the online learning platform. You can access them on <https://ruralgce.erasmusplus.space/>. They are available in English, Bulgarian, Greek and Spanish language and free of charge.

After all pilot training take part in the partner's countries, the partners will review the collected feedback and work on improving and finetuning the online platform in order to ensure its usability and viability, and clear out any mistakes or inconsistencies.

We need your help!

Currently, we need you to give your honest opinion on the above-mentioned training course, learning materials and platform.

At this moment, we have collected some useful and valuable feedback points, but we are always eager to improve the Rural GCE materials, so that they are comprehensive and point out the real educational needs.

Let us know what you think! By taking part in our platform testing and discovering the learning modules and online platform, you will help us finetune it and make the educational experience better for the learners.
